

Please stop pandering to special interests and do the right thing. Having satellite radio provide local traffic and weather hurts no one. If you're already a satellite radio subscriber then you're not listening to local stations anyway. And if you're not a subscriber I seriously doubt you're going to go and throw out your FM radio because you can get 30 seconds of traffic and weather info.